BEAUTIFUL STANZAS.

Leaf by leaf the roses fall,
Drop by drop the springs run dry;
One by one, beyond recall,
Summer beauties fade and die;
But the roses will bloom again,
And the spring will gush anew,
In the pleasant April rain
And the summer sun and dew.

So in the hours of deepest gloom,
When the spring of gladness fail,
And the roses in the bloom,
Droop like maidens wan and pale,
We shall find some hope that lies
Like a silent gem apart,
Hidden far from careless eyes,
In the garden of the heart.

Some sweet hope to gladness wed,
That will spring afresh and new,
When grief's winter shall have fled,
Giving place to rain and dew—
Some sweet hope that breathes of spring,
Through the weary, weary time
Budding for its blossoming,
In the spirits glorious clime.

THE OLD MAN'S GROWING OLD.

Yes, the old man's growing older—
I was looking at him there;
His one hand rested on his staff,
The other on his chair.
He is more silent than he was,
And whiter waves his hair;
His figure seems more bending—
I was looking at him there.

His hand is not so steady,
And his eye is not so bright—
He catcheth not our joke so soon,
His foot is not so light;
Nor joineth he in our songs as in
The days that went all fair;
For the old man's growing older—
I was looking at him there.

Yes, the old man's growing older,
But is not less kind and true;
To all his house is open, with
A ready welcome, too—
But yet, there is a tale, by Time,
Upon his brow of care;
For the old man's growing older—
I was looking at him there.

Select Miscellany.

"WALKING THE PLANK."

The history of the West is one long record of bloody and atrocious deeds.—Not the least in the dark and interminable catalogue is the little event we are about to lay before our readers. We heard the story from the lips of one who professed—and we have no good reason to doubt his word—to have played a prominent part in the thrilling occurrence, and we give it to the reader just as we heard it.

"Some years ago," said the narrator, "a friend and myself agreed to take a tramp, hunter fashion, through the great wilderness of the Northwest. Having provided ourselves with what things we thought actually necessary, and nothing more, we started upon our perilous journey; for that it was perilous we were fully aware, and every reader will admit.

"After encountering numerous hardships and many dangers, we found ourselves in the wildest kind of a region, many miles distant from the haunts of civilization. Already we had passed through enough to have discouraged most men, but we were young and full of blood, and not easily put out or frightened.—This was particularly the case with my companion, whose name was Andrew Huff.

"Both of us were perfectly healthy, as strong as iron, and considerably experienced in the use of such articles as rifles, pistols and bowie knives. In all these respects we could hold out with the best; had it been otherwise, we should never have lived to reach the point at which we finally arrived.

"Just about dark one evening in the latter part of July, after a hard day's tramp, we halted for the night. A darker, deeper, lonelier solitude than that which surrounded us, it would be hard to imagine. Silently we built a little fire and cooked our supper; silently we ate it. Worn out, and for the time being dispirited, we were in no humor for conversation.

"For some time we sat by our campfire without uttering a single word, and almost without moving. I was thinking of home and absent friends, and it is only reasonable to suppose that Huff was similarly occupied.

"After the lapse of some time, our fire burnt low, and I arose to replenish it, when the bark of a wolf startled me, and I involuntarily addressed my companion.

"Huff did not answer me, however, but without noticing the circumstance, I threw a quantity of faggots on the fire and again spoke to him.

"'Take a few hours rest, Andy, and I'll keep watch,' said I, 'and after that you can do the same by me.'

"Still I got no answer, and then I began to notice my companion's unusual taciturnity.

"'Anything the matter, Andy?' said I, regarding him closely.

No answer again.

"'That's a little strange,' I muttered, moving over toward my companion.

"Huff was sitting facing the fire, with his head bent down upon his knees. I shook him without arousing him. Finally, I raised his head, and at once became conscious that he was soundly, deeply asleep.

"Laughing off the fears that had for a few moments oppressed me, I left Huff to enjoy his nap, and settled myself down as comfortably as circumstances would permit.

"I was very drowsy, and despite our perilous situation, despite every effort I made to the contrary, I could not entirely resist the overpowering influence of sleep. Occasionally I started up suddenly and found I had been dozing. The last time I was aroused, I was awoke by the bark of a wolf. Jumping to my feet I beheld the fierce animal not a dozen paces distant, his ravenous eyes glaring upon me from the darkness. Seizing a burning brand I flung it at the rapacious monster with all my force. It struck him full in the face, and with a terrible howl he darted off into the woods. Huff did not awake, did not even stir, so sound was his repose.

"After that I did not feel much inclined to sleep, though nothing more was to be seen or heard. I examined my rifle and pistols, piled more faggots on the fire, and kept on the move, my eyes and ears open for any nocturnal visitors.

"Some time passed quietly, and I began to grow insufferably weary. Every muscle relaxed, and a drowsy torpor gradually stole over me. My eyes closed unconsciously—my knees bent beneath me, and I was about dropping to the ground, when I was suddenly aroused by the sound of a man's voice:

"'Hello, fellers, how d'yer do?' were the word that fell upon my ears, and aroused me to full consciousness.

"I looked around in bewilderment.—Our little camping ground was encircled by a dozen or more brawny, fierce looking desperadoes. It was a complete surprise, and on the spur of the moment I yelled aloud—

"'Andy, Andy, wake up!'

"'Yes, wake up, Andy!' echoed the outlaws loudly and derisively.

"Aroused at last, my comrade sprang to his feet, and the next moment was standing by my side.

"Instantly a dozen or more rifles were leveled at us with deadly aim.

"'Yer ain't goin' to show fight, ar ye?' demanded one of the outlaws, a brutal looking wretch, and the leader of the band, as it afterwards appeared.

"'That depends on circumstances!' responded Andy, unhesitatingly. 'We're two good men, afraid of neither man nor beast—and if your intentions are hostile, as they appear to be, you may take my word for it that we'll give you all the trouble we can.'

"'Yer won't now, will yer?' rejoined the desperado, tauntingly. 'Guess, ye'll have yer hands full of you try that sort uv a game.'

"'Well, what do you want here, anyhow?' I demanded boldly, fully satisfied in my own mind that if we were to get out of our present scrape we had to fight out of it.

"'What do we want har?' was the rapid reply. 'I guess the forest's as free to us as it is to any one else. Don't kalkelate that ye'er boss here, stranger do yer?'

"'No!' was Andy's quick reply, and he took the words out of my mouth, nor are you. But that's not to the point!' he added; 'what do you want with us?'

"'Yer money and yer traps. Understand that sort o' talk, don't yer?'

"Yes, we understand that you're a gang of thieves and cut-throats!' responded Andy, fiercely; 'but if you get anything from us you have got to fight for it, though we are but two against a dozen. Give 'em a shot, comrade!' added the fiery fellow, addressing himself to me. 'We can't make the matter worse!'

"I thought so too, and raising my rifle, Andy and myself fired simultaneously.

"Immediately two of the outlaws fell dead to the ground, and the rest uttered a concerted yell that sounded more fearfully than the howl of the wolf I had so recently driven away.

"'Now give 'em the pistols!' shouted Andy, his whole soul in the deadly conflict.

"Each of us carried a brace of double barrelled pistols, which gave us eight shots between us, and quick as lightning we were discharging them in the faces of the outlaws. Six more of the brigands fell before our aim, while we remained uninjured, notwithstanding a number of scattering shots whistled around our ears and over our heads.

"'Now charge upon the thieves!' yelled Andy, in stentorian tones.

"I followed my comrades lead, and together we charged upon the remaining five outlaws, for that number were left. A fierce and bloody fight ensued, Andy performing miracles, and I did double duty; but as fate would have it, we were both rendered hors du combat, my comrade by a pistol wound in the side, and I by a bowie cut in the right shoulder.

"I knew nothing more after that, for the next moment I became unconscious. When I came to myself, I found I was in a cave, and it was not long before I discovered that the cave was the haunt of robbers. This much I learned by listening, for I could see nothing, the bright light of day seeming never to penetrate that dismal cavern; it was the darkest, chilliest place I was ever in, and from the bottom of my heart I wished myself well out of it.

"I thought of Andy, you may be sure, but could see no way of finding out what had become of him.

"After a while, however, an outrageously ugly Indian squaw made her appearance. She brought me food and medicine, and a temporary light. My wounds had already been dressed. Of course I was eager to question her.

"'My good woman,' said I, very pleasantly, 'I should like to know where I am—will you tell me?'"

"She shook her head negatively, and to all I could say or do I got no answer. I inquired about Andy, and other matters, but received no satisfaction. Finally, I gave up in despair, and let the old hag go.

"A week passed, and I was comparatively well. About the expiration of that time, the old squaw came to me one day and beckoned me to follow her. Having no reason to refuse obedience, I complied with her directions, and after traversing a number of dark passages, found myself in the open air. It was a bright, sunny day, and despite my situation, I inhaled the pure atmosphere with delight.

"Assembled on the spot I beheld a gang of a score or more of the worst looking men I had ever encountered, and in the midst my friend and comrade, Andy Huff. Andy looked frightfully pale and emaciated, and appeared to have suffered much more than myself. We had barely time to greet each other, and say 'God bless you, comrade!' when we were suddenly roughly seized and gagged. At the same time one of the outlaws, whom I at once recognized as the leader of the party which we had first encountered, stepped forward and addressed us:

"'Now, cuss yer?' cried he, passionately, 'we'll make yer pay for yer handywork t'other night! Strip 'em!'

"In a few moments we were stripped to the skin, and had neither the power to resist or expostulate.

"'Out with the plank, hosses!' yelled the same fellow. 'Fust show 'em the way they're goin' to travel.'

'We were separately led to the brink of a chasm near, and made to look down into the almost unfathomable depths. A stream of water dashed along over the rocks at the bottom. It made me dizzy to look down. We were then stationed within a few feet from the brink, with a guard over us. I began to comprehend that some frightful death awaited us, and my feelings were dreadful.

"A plank about a dozen feet long and a foot wide was then brought forward and placed half way over the precipice. My blood ran cold at the preparations.

"On one end of the plank two men stationed themselves.

"Now drive that chap for'ard!' shouted the leader, pointing to Andy. 'T'other chap shall see him drop, an' he follows arter him. Drive him on thar, hosses!"

"Every effort was made to move Andy, but the poor fellow continued obstinate. They pricked him with their knives, and beat him with their rifles, but he refused to stir.

"'Carry the man!' shouted the leader madly.

"Despite his struggles, Andy was picked up and carried to the plank. As the outlaws let him down they gave him a violent push which sent him forward to the end of the plank over the precipice. Andy swayed from side to side and struggled wildly to regain his balance. He failed, however, and fell over, in his fall desperately clutching at the plank. There he held with his finger nails buried in the wood. It was a horrid scene, and my blood runs cold at the bare recollection of it.

"'Let him go!' shouted the fiendish leader.

"The men who were standing on the other end of the plank jumped off, and plank and Andy whirled down into the seething depths below. Despite the gag in his mouth, the poor fellow uttered a loud and terrifying shriek before he disappeared from sight forever. The cry rings in my ears, though years have passed since then, I shall never forget it.

"The outlaws sprang on the edge of the cliff, and with savage exultation watched Andy's descent.

"'Now fur t'other one!' shouted the leader, after the lapse of a few minutes.

"At that instant a loud report of firearms suddenly reverberated far and near, and half of the bandits at least fell dead to the earth. The balls whistled around me as thick as hail, but I escaped unhurt.—Instantly afterwards a party of trappers rushed upon the scene and charged the outlaws. The fight was short and desperate. In the end not an outlaw of them all remained alive, though they fought like incarnate devils.

"In the few first moments of the melee I got away out of the reach of harm. Pinioned and gagged, I would have been of no use to myself or anybody else. After the conflict was over I made my appearance and gave a statement of all that had transpired. From the trappers I learned that the cry of Andy had directed them to the spot; but, poor fellow, they came too late to save him.

"I thanked God and the mountaineers for my preservation, and quitted the scene with a sense of relief mingled with a feeling of sadness.

"Gentlemen, that was about the worst situation I was ever placed in, and may you never have a similar experience.'

A Fight With Bumble Bees.

A merchant doing business on Main street found a "bumble bees' nest" in a store box. He carefully corked up the hole where the bees made their exit and entrance, and set the box out in a back yard. That day an old apple pedlar came along and wanted to buy a box, and the merchant, thinking to have a little fun, sent him out in the back yard with a hatchet to open the box to which we have alluded. The yard is surrounded with a high fence, so that there is no way of getting out except through the store. After the pedlar passed through the door into the yard, the merchant turned the key, and in company with others, whom he had advised of the trick, went up stairs to witness the scene. The pounding on the box of course soon stirred up the bees, and when the lid was raised about a quart of the vermints bounced upon the old fellow.

He dropped his hatchet and broke for the door, but finding that locked he ran around in a stooping posture, hugging the fence as close as possible until his eye fell upon a large Jamestown weed. This he pulled up by the roots, and continued to run, slapping at the bees in the most earnest, energetic, and at the same time the most ludicrous manner imaginable. Becoming a little heated by the active exercise, he hastily pulled off his coat and with glaring eyes and expanded muscles he went into the insects most vigorously, and in a short time the yard was strewn with the carcasses of the enemy. He had worn the "Jamestown" bush completely away, and his body was literally green from its frequent contact with the well-wielded weed. Upon being admitted into the store, he told the story of his recent triumph with many flourishes, being perfectly ignorant of the cruel trick that had been played upon him —Wheeling Intelligencer.

☞ A young fop, of an infidel turn, while traveling in a stage-coach, sought to display his smartness by attempting to pick flaws in the narratives of Scripture. After trying to show the inconsistency and improbability of several events described in the Bible, he referred to the life of Nebuchadnezzar, and argued that it was utterly absurd and impossible for a man to so far foget his human instincts, and eat grass like a beast. Having stated his views, he asked the opinion of the passengers, and, among the rest, of a grave looking Quaker, who had hitherto taken no part in the conversation. "Verily, friend," answered the Quaker, "I see no improbability in the story, if he was as great an ass as thou."

Crockett's Log Cabin.—On the Mobile and Ohio Railroad, not far from Jackson, in Tennessee, says an exchange paper, still stands the humble log cabin, 18 by 20 feet in size, built and occupied while he lived in the district, by David Crockett. Its logs are fast decaying, and desolations surround it, but no traveler passes it without an eager desire to look upon the humble roof that sheltered one of the truest representative of the American pioneer character—a hero and an honest man. Near it is a railroad station, called Crockett's station; around it, perhaps, will arise a town to bear and purpetuate a name as familiar to his countrymen as that of Jackson.

Thanksgiving in Pennsylvania.

PENNSYLVANIA, SS.:

SEAL

IN THE NAME AND BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.
WILLIAM F. PACKER,
Governor of the said Commonwealth.

PROCLAMATION.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—The blessings vouchsafed by a kind Providence through the past year, demand our grateful recognition and again call for the sacrifice of Thanksgiving and praise. Under the protection of a Government that secures to all equal rights, we have pursued, unmolested, the various avocations of life, with more than usual prosperity. The earth, under the labors of the husbandman, has yielded her increase, and our barns and storehouses are crowded with the fruits of the harvest. We have not only been preserved from the ravages of the pestilence, but the past has been a year distinguished for health in our large cities and throughout all our rural districts. Our country has been preserved in peace. Our homes have been the abodes of tranquility, and blessings innumerable have clustered around our domestic hearths. Our various schools and seminaries of learning are diffusing throughout our community a higher intelligence, and imparting to our youth nobler aspirations. The institutions of our holy religion are well sustained; and under its pure and genial influence, the spirit of unity and love, the earnest of yet better days, is most happily developed. To God, the Great and the good, we are indebted for all, and to Him let praise be rendered.

With these sentiments, and in accordance with the known wishes of many of my fellow-citizens, I, WILLIAM F. PACKER, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby appoint THURSDAY, the 24th day of NOVEMBER next, as a day of general Thanksgiving and praise to Almighty God, and recommend to all our people to lay aside on that day, their customary worldly business—assemble in their respective places of worship, and unite in praising God for His excellent greatness toward us—beseeching His gracious goodness.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this fourteenth day of October, A. D. 1859, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-fourth.

By the Governor: WM. F. PACKER.
WM. M. HIESTER, Sec. Commonwealth.

☞ We notice by the last number of the Tyrone Star, that our jovial military friend, Capt. Bell, has resigned his position therein, and transferred the establishment into the care and keeping of our little legal friend, M. H. Jolly, who will no doubt print a jolly little paper, at least he has the ability to do so. We wish the gallant Captain success in whatever business he may engage hereafter, hoping he may find something more lucrative than newspaper publishing generally. And here's our ☞ in friendship, Mat, hoping that your undertaking may prove all you anticipate,

MINNESOTA.—We have returns from thirty-two counties, which show a majority for Gov. Ramsey, of nearly four thousand, and a Republican gain over the last Gubernatorial election of over three thousand. The remaining counties to hear from will probably increase Ramsey's majority.—The Senate stands twenty-two Republicans to fourteen Democrats, and the majority on joint ballot will be about forty. Minnesota elects a United States Senator next winter, in the place of Gen. Shields, and it is said the choice of the Legislature will fall upon Gov. Ramsey.

☞ We notice a number of the Opposition papers of the State recommending Hon. Andrew Gregg, of Centre county, as a suitable man to fill the Speaker's chair in the Senate next winter. No man in the ranks of the Opposition deserve better at the hands of his party than Col. Gregg, and he is certainly well qualified to fill the office. We believe he received the unanimous vote of his party for retiring Speaker last spring, and the Senate will have a faithful and impartial officer should he receive a like support this winter.

Godey's Lady's Book for November is a rich production, abounding in all that could fascinate or please the ladies. Every lady subscriber to the Book of the country expects largely of Godey, and he never disappoints them. On the contrary he pleases them far better than they could please themselves, and they admit the fact. Price $3 per annum, the price of a new bonnet, which the book will tell you how to make yourself, together with many other nice things you would never have thought of.

☞ It gives us pleasure to record the triumphant election of Col. A. K. M'Clure, (our first instructor in the "art preservative") as Senator from the Franklin, Adams and Fulton District. During the campaign—and in fact before it opened—he was most fouly slandered, and the most strenuous efforts were used to defeat him; but all to no effect. The Col. will be an honor to, and take a prominent position in, the Senate.

☞ The Republican majority for Governor in Iowa is over two thousand.—Both branches of the Legislature are largely Republican, which will ensure the election of a Republican U. S. Senator.—A telegraph dispatch dated Leavenworth, October 22d, states that Mr. Daily, the Republican candidate, has been elected Delegate to Congress, by a majority of 43, over Eastbrook, Dem.

☞ Peterson's Magazine for November was on our table a few days since, but soon passed into the hands of our better-half and other lady readers who were anxiously awaiting its arrival. Peterson's Magazine is about as well read by the ladies, into whose hands it falls, as any other Magazine published. It is prized by all. Price only $2.00 per annum.

☞ The Ladies Home Magazine, we are pleased to observe, is rapidly gaining on its older cotemporaries, both in point of attraction and number of readers.—The fact is a work edited by T. S. Arthur and Virginia F. Townsend could not do otherwise than prosper. Price $2,00 per annum.

Life Insurance.

There is no one thing in proportion to its importance that is more undervalued than Life Insurance. The following example of an eminent man is worthy of imitation.

It is announced that the late Hon. Rufus Choate had an insurance on his life to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars. This is a new proof of the sagacity and foresight of that eminent man, and a fresh illustration of the excellence of the life insurance system.—His estate may be ample for the support of his family in independence, but to guard against contingencies and misfortunes, he had secured for them a fund sufficient for their support even if his estate should have turned out insolvent. Life insurance is an investment made for the future benefit of those who may be dependent on us: an investment that cannot be affected by misfortunes and embarrassments, but remains to secure to those nearest and dearest to us. No man with a family should neglect to have his life insured for their benefit. It adds greatly to one's comfort to know that he has secured something for his wife and children in case of death.—Commercial Bulletin.

In our advertising columns will be found the card of the American Life Insurance and Trust Company of Philadelphia, the following notice of which, in connection with one of a similar kind in New York, we coppy from the Boston True Witness.

The The New York Life Insurance Company's Agency in this city has continued for nearly ten years; and has its local board of directers, resident among us. The Semi-Annual statement of this company to 1st of July, shows a solid capital of $1,667,513 63, its earnings for the half year being $235,559 51 and its losses, paid during same time, $114,600.

The American Life Insurance and Trust Company of Philadelphia has an equally fair record; possessing probably as large if not larger capital, in proportion to its risks, than any other similar institution in our country. Its affairs are also most carefully conducted and, as is well known in this city, its losses are promptly paid. It also has its local board, composed of gentlemen whose names give ample guaranty of its excellence. We hope to see an increased attention to this important subject generally; and we cannot conceive how a congregation can do a more acceptable service to a pastor and his family, than by a policy on his life, assuring them of a provision after his decease. Indeed in benefitting their pastor, they will benefit themselves, by the very relief from depressing care which they thus afford. He will be more free to serve them with all his powers.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

☞ Hurrah for the "mersheen."

☞ Still in progress—the Protracted meeting in the Methodist Chuch.

☞ J. Edgar Thompson has been elected President of the Pacific Rairoad Company.

☞ Pysician's faults are covered with earth, and rich men's with money.

☞ Changed—the Bell Star, of Tyrone, to a Jolly Star.

☞ The biggest "squirt" in the country is expected in town on Saturday next.

☞ Opened—a book and periodical store in the room formerly occupied by the "Peoples' Shoe Store," across the way.

☞ Dogs are said to "speak with their tails." Would it be proper, then, to call a short tailed dog a stump orator?

☞ Somedody says that, "if young ladies now-a-days did not become women at thirteen, some men would have better wives."

☞ Amusing—some of the chances after runaway hats and flying papers, during the windy weather last week. People should keep love-letters out of their hats on windy days.

☞ Gen. A. L. Roumfort, Supt. Eastern Division Penn'a R. R., has been lying dangerously ill for some weeks past, at his residence in Harrisburg.

☞ Mr. La Mountain's balloon, the Atlantic, which was abandoned by him in the Canada woods has been secured and returned to Watertown, somewhat torn, but serviceable. The particulars of the rescue are not given.

☞ Some very pious young women in Syracuse have established an association which they style "The Yonung Woman's Anti-Young-Man-Waiting-at-the Church-Doors with Ulterior-Objects Society." Nothing like a good title.

☞ "Oh, dear!" blubbered an urchin who had been suffering from the application of a birch. "Oh, my! they tell me that forty rods make a furlong but I can tell a bigger story than that. Let 'em get such a plaguy lickin, as I've had and they'll find out that one rod makes an acher."

☞ An Infidel, who had been attempting to prove that men have no souls, asked a lady, with an air of triumph, what she thought of his philosophy. "It appears to me," she replied, "that you have been employing a good deal of talent to prove yourself a beast."

THE VICTORIA BRIDGE AT MONTREAL:—The Victoria Bridge, across the St. Lawrence, at Montreal, was commenced in 1854, and it is expected that it will be completed in the course of the next month. The cost will be between seven and eight millions of dollars. The number of men employed upon it now is 3000, with 6 steamboats, 72 barges, and also several smaller craft, 142 horses, and 4 locomotives. The amount of wages daily is $5000. The bridge is 9084 feet, or nearly one mile and three quarters in length. There are three million cubic feet of masonry, ten thousand tons of iron in the tubes, two million rivets, and one hundred and sixty eight acres of painting. There are twenty-five openings of 243 feet, except the centre one, which is 330 feet. There is a rise of forty feet to the mile to the centre of the bridge. The centre pier is 24 feet in width, and the others 16 feet. Each of the piers and abutments is furnished with a cut-water, which will act as an ice-breaker when it breaks up in the spring. The centre pier is 60 feet high, and the abutment 36 feet. Some of the blocks of stone weigh seventeen tons, but the average weight is about eleven tons. Each iron tube covers two openings, and at each alternate opening, or at every 484 feet, a space of eight inches is left between the tubes for expansion by heat, the ends resting on expansion rollers, which move on plated beds. Each tube weighs about 322 tons. This stupendous structure will make the Grand Trunk Railroad an unbroken line from Portland to Sarnia.

WHEN ARE THEY THE PRETTIEST.—"A wife looks prettier, if she did but know it, in her neat, morning dress of calico, than in any incongruous pile of finery, which she dignifies with the title of full dress. Many an unmarried female first wins the heart of her future husband in some simple, unpretending attire, if consulted about which she would pronounce too cheap except for ordinary wear, but which by its accidental suitability to her figure, face and carriage, idealizes her youth wonderfully. If the sex would study taste in dress more, and care less for costliness, they would have no reason to regret it." A foolish and silly man is not worth marrying, and a sensible man will surely judge you advantageously in exact ratio to the plainness and simplicity of your dress.

CAUTION TO MOTHERS.—Last week a young and inexperienced mother in a neighboring township, went to bed and fell asleep holding her infant in her arms. When she awoke, sometime during the night, she was horrified to find that her babe was dead! It is not an unusual occurrence for mothers to awke with dead babes in their arms, whom they unconsciously smother during sleep. The practice of children sleeping with their mothers is altogether reprehensible. If death by asphyxia is not always the result, the fact that the child is thus deprived of pure air must necessarily weaken its constitution and shorten its life.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

HARPER'S FERRY TRAGEDY.

We have some further light upon the origin and extent of the sad tragedy enacted at Harper's Ferry, by the additional telegraphic dispatches, and the narratives of newspaper reporters. In summing up and commenting upon the additional facts thus brought to light, the New York Commercial Advertiser says, "they entirely denude the tragical affair of all political character and of all sectional or geographical complexion. It is true that one of the reporters makes the insane promoter of it say that he had a large organization, many accomplices at the North expected help from other quarters so soon as he made a demonstration, with other remarks of somewhat similar import. It is also reported that letters and a check for $1000 from Cerrit Smith were found upon Brown, all of which may be true, (though not yet in evidence beyond an irresponsible report,) without at all implicating Mr. Smith in the present act of treasonable wickedness. There is no doubt that Gerrit Smith was in correspondence with Brown while the latter was in Kansas, and he has never made any secret that he had contributed money, even to the purchasing of rifles for the party with whom Brown was there connected. It is by no means improbable, therefore, that documents in Mr. Smith's handwriting were found in Brown's possession. The reporter had only to omit the date of such documents—to suppress a part of the truth—to make the impression upon the public mind that Mr. Smith was in present complicity with demented Brown in his horrible scheme. We have little doubt that it will ultimately appear that the dates of all those documents were contemporaneous with the disturbances in Kansas, and that they have no bearing whatever upon the present melancholly affair of Harper's Ferry. At the same time we know of no political party that can be justly held responsible for the peculiar idiosyncracies of the Hon. Gerrit Smith. Assuredly there has long been an established mutual repudiation between him and the Republicans, and with no pretence of justice can they be held resposible for anything he may say or do in connection with slavery or against the Union or Constitution. On this question of the complicity of any political party with Brown, the statement of the man himself, when supposed to be dying, is entitled to as much consideration and credit as anything from the lips of such a man can be.—It is thus reported by a gentleman connected with the Baltimore Press:

Reporter—"When did you first conceive this move?"

Brown—"While in Kansas. After my property was destroyed, one of my sons killed, and my happiness destroyed by the slave party of Kansas, I determined to be revenged. I also was moved in this matter by a hope to benefit the negroes."

Reporter—"Where did you get all your rifles and pikes which are here? Who furnished you with them?"

Brown—"My own money. I did not receive aid from any man. If I had succeeded in running off slaves this time, I could have raised twenty times as many men as I have now, for a similar expedition. But I have failed. I did not intend to stay here so long, but they (the citizens) deceived me by proposing compromises which they had no intention of carrying out. I am not in any man's employ."

Another dying conspirator thus explained how Brown came to be in possession of arms, and his statement was confirmed by an exactly similar one made by another conspirator to another reporter, not within hearing of Copie and his interrogator:—

Ed. Copie states that he is from Iowa. He made the acquaintance of Brown last Winter in Iowa, where Brown told him of this scheme, and asked him to join the expedition. Copie states as follows:—"We were to be well paid for our time and trouble. We never made a direct bargain as to how much we were to receive. Old man Brown was not to pay us, but I don't know who was. The rifles were furnished by the Massachusetts Aid Society. They were first sent to Kansas, but the excitement having died away, they were of no use, and Brown got the rifles for this expedition. They were sent from Kansas to Chambersburg, Franklin county; they were then hauled from there to Brown's house by a man that lives in Greencastle. I don't know who made the pikes or picks. I have said all the prayers I have to say and am ready to die."

These avowels entirely dispose of the question of the complicity of any political party.—Some of the Southern press are already attempting to make political capital out of this tragedy; and are falsely condemning not the Republican party only, but the whole people of the North for the infamous proceeding of the infatuated maniac, whose mind was doubtless thrown off its balance by the cruelties practised upon him and his by the Missouri border ruffians.—We would respectfully suggest to our cotemporaries of that class, and to our brethren of the Southern States generally, that such a course is both unjust and impolitic in the highest degree. While we have no desire to annoy our fellow citizens of the South by undue moralizing upon the lesson taught by the events at Harper's Ferry, we would remind them that by such an unjust course to their brethren of the North as that of implicating them by wholesale in the proceedings of mad Brown and his fifteen or twenty fanatical associates, they will only provoke retorts and counter maledictions which will tend more to the disadvantage of the South than of the North. The intensity and universality of the alarm caused by this incendiary movement of a handful of fanatics, and the ready resort of the alarmed South to the protective force which the Union holds at its service, are suggestive of reflections that would prove unpleasant to the South, without the addition of unjust accusations and fierce denunciations. Rather let our Southern brethren learn a lesson of another and a better kind from this unfortunate and lamentable occurrence. Seeing it thus demonstrated that the Union is essential to the well being of the South as well as the North—that the South needs the protecting arm of the federal government, and feels that its strength is there in any emergency—and that the North cheerfully recognizes the duty of that federal government thus to throw the ægis of its protection over the South and Southern institutions—that, in fact we all need the Union, and turn to it in the time of our need—let us cease all mutual railing and false accusation, and unite heartily in the Websterian sentiment, "the Union, now and forever, one and inseperable."

HARD CASE.—A cotemporary dscribes, in Hiawathean style, a man who—

—"Took the ague badly,
And it shook him, shook him sorely;
Shook his boots off and his toe-nails;
Shook his teeth out and his hair off;
Shook his coat all into tatters,
And his shirt all into ribbons;
Shirtless, coatless, hairless, toothless,
Minus boots and minus toe-nails,
Still it shook him, shook him till it
Made him yellow, gaunt and bony;
Shook him till it reached his death-bed;
Shook him till it shuffled for him
Off his mortal coil, and then it
Having made him cold as could be,
Shook the earth still down upon him,
And he lies 'neath his gravestone,
Ever shaking, shaking, shaking!"

☞ There is now in New York, fresh from the chisel of Hiram Powers, of Florence, a beautifully executed full length statue of the Father of his country, clothed in Masonic regalia. It was executed for Fredericksburg Lodge, Virginia, in which Washington was initiated, passed and raised, at an expense of $6000.

A NEW BOOK, and one that is destined to be ranked as the best book of the season. Now ready. Translated from the French.

MEMOIRS OF ROBERT HOUDIN,

Ambassador, Author, Conjurer, [illegible]

Written by Himself. Edited by Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie. With a Copious Index.

This Book is full of interesting and entertaining anecdotes, the interviews of the Great Wizard with the most distinguished personages of the present day, and gives descriptions of the manner of performing many of his most curious tricks and transformations.

Bound in one volume, 12mo., Cloth, 445 pages. Price $1,00.

From the Editor's Preface.

A man may not only "take his own life," by writing his Autobiography, without committing felo de se, but may carry himself into future time, by producing a book which the world will not willingly let die. This is what Mr. Robert Houdin, the great artist in what is called Conjuring, has lately done in the remarkable book Confidences d'un Prestigiteur, a faithful translation of which is here presented to the American reading public. The work has had the greatest success in Europe, from its lively style as well as the various information it contains, historical and philosophical. On the practice and principles of sleight-of-hand, and the other details, mental as well as mechanical, which unite to make perfect the exhibition of White Magic, the antipodes of what our forefathers knew, persecuted, and punished as the Black Art.

From The Westminster Review.

"Without any sarcastic intention, we might show that the Conjurer was really a man of greater ability than many a successful author. On the whole we can recommend these Memoirs of Robert Houdin's as a pleasant reading."

JUST PUBLISHED, LIFE AND TIMES OF COLONEL DANIEL BOONE, comprising a History of the Early Settlement of Kentucky, With accounts of the Hardships and Adventures of the Pioneer, to which is added COL. BOONE'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY COMPLETE, As dictated to John Filson and first published in 1784.

"Colonel Daniel Boone was one of the most remarkable men that his country has produced. His character is marked with originality, and his actions were important and influential in one of the most interesting periods of our history—that of the early settlement of Kentucky. Boone is generally acknowledged as the founder of that State, the earliest settlers; founding Boonesborough, having defended the stations successfully against the attacks of the Indians, and the prominent part which he took in military affairs of this period of distress and peril, certainly render his claims to the honor of the title founder of Kentucky very strong."

NEW AND PROSPEROUS SETTLEMENT.—Hammonton on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad, is a flourishing village settled chiefly by New Englanders, who wish to escape their frosty climate, and by persons from the West, who are engaged in the grape culture. One year ago the settlement commenced, and since then has a population of fifteen hundred. They have built about three hundred houses, opened four stores, several hotels, one steam saw and planing mill, and one water power saw and planing mill, with schools, churches, and brick yards.—They have set out since, forty vinyards, and in short, established a settlement, which from the respectability of the settlers, is destined to become one of the most important and influential places in the State of New Jersey. Grape growers are of the opinion that the strip of land between the Little and the Great Egg Harbor rivers is the best for the vine, owing to both soil and climate, of any that has been found in the country. From the extent they are entering into the business, a supply of pure and unadulterated wines may soon be expected. They who have raised crops at Hammonton represent that the soil is very productive. It is not surprising that the place should increase so rapidly, when it is considered the advantages it presents over the West in health, climate and markets. Crops are secure from frosts, that blighting enemy that robs the farmer of the North of so much of his labor and profit.—Phila. Inquirer.

SPECULATING IN LOTTERIES.—All men are prone to hazzard; some try one way and some another. To those who try lotteries we would say that Wood, Eddy & Co., Managers of the Delaware State Lotteries will draw a mammoth scheme on Saturday, October 27th, Capital Prize, $100,000; Second Capital, $50,000; Third, $20,000, &c., &c. Wood, Eddy & Co. are so well and favorably known to be men of integrity and promptness, that it is unnecessary for us to say anything on that head; but we will say that their address is Wood, Eddy & Co., Wilmington Del., and the price of Whole Tickets in this mammoth scheme is $20, half, $10, and quarters $5.

☞ The Sunbury and Erie Railroad is now completed to Columbus, Warren county, and cars run daily to that point from Erie.

ANOTHER FALLEN MINISTER.—The descent to hell is easy. The Rev. Dr. Wm. M. Daily was tried a few days ago at Bloomington by the Indiana Conference, and expelled, by a vote of sixty three to sixteen, for drunkenness and lewdness. What a commentary on the dangerous consequences likely to result from the departure from the path of clerical dignity! Dr. Daily was formerly President of the Bloomington University. For many years he ranked high as a minister in the Methodist Episcopal church; he gradually, however, connected himself with the outside world, and his sacred calling was often forgotten amid the revelry and corruption of politics; at a later stage he acquired a taste for the fatal bowl; finally he was conquered by a passion for women. The fault was his own; he had for many years walked so near the edge of the pit of ruin that in an unlucky moment he was carried down the precipice.

THREE PERSONS KILLED IN A DUEL.—A major of the rural militia, sixty-five years old, near Havana, Cuba, recently fought a duel with swords, and killed his adversary, a young man. The second then took up the quarrel, and he too was killed by a thrust of the major's sword; a cousin of the principal next stepped forward, and was also killed; lastly, a friend of all the others felt bound to avenge their deaths, but upon receiving a rather severe wound, declared himself satisfied. The victorious duellists, in full uniform, went to Havana and presented himself to the Captain General, who, without depriving him of his sword, pointed out a room for him to occupy, and place a "guard of honor" at the door. It is believed he will be acquitted by the military court before which he is to be tried.

BLOODY ENGAGEMENT.—A bloody engagement, between whites and Indians, took place recently, on the Arkansas river, near Fort Smith.—There were seventeen Indians on one side, and five Americans, two unarmed, on the other. At the end, eleven Indians were killed, and Pool, an American, was shot with an arrow, which he had to cut out; and after performing incredible feats, he was finally filled in a third attack.—Sawyers and Bradley, of the same party, shared the same fate, and out of the five but one escaped.

☞ A meeting of 40 old soldiers of the war of 1812 convened at Greensburgh, on the 13th inst., for the purpose of petitioning Congress, for a monied pension for the balance of their lives. Previous to the meeting, they were drilled by an old captain, in front of one of the hotels of the town, and it is said they went through the manoeuvers in truly creditable manner. They were all between the ages of 77 and 62.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Snow Storm.—On Saturday last, we were visited by the first snow storm of the season.—When, on peeping out for the first time in the morning, we observed old mother earth shrouded in her winter habiliments, we felt like pulling back under the warm covering and taking another snooze, but we suddenly remembered that we had a number of bills in our pocket which ought to be collected, and we thought, may be, our patrons would not be pleased if we did not call on them, so we hurried out, determined to give all an opportunity of easing their conscience and contributing to the happiness of the printer. Well, we didn't call on all who owe us, but we hope those who did not meet us won't feel offended, and as they likely have as much time to call on us as we have to call on them, we hope they will do so. Our office is always open to receive their visits, with the latch string on the outside; so walk up gentlemen. While on this subject, we can't resist the temptation—and wouldn't if we could—to copy the following lines now so appropriately applicable to ourselves and the season, and hope, with a cotemporary, that the point of the poetry will penetrate to colder hearts than winter ever chilled, and that no one to whom its meaning is applicable will lay down the paper without firmly resolving that the just demands of the needy printer shall at once be satisfied:—

> "Here comes winter, here comes winter,
> Storms of rain and snow and sleet;
> Pay the printer, pay the printer,
> Let him warm his hands and feet.
> Here comes winter, here comes winter,
> Whitening every hill and dale;
> Pay the printer, pay the printer,
> Send your money by the mail.
> Here comes winter, here comes winter,
> Oh! remember his just due;
> In cold winter, in cold winter
> He wants cash as well as you."

Fatal Accident.—On Tuesday evening last, a man named Bernard Lynch, a carpenter by trade, who has been working in this place for a year or more, was run over by the Branch engine and train, on the Branch track, in front of P. Dempsey's Hotel, and so much injured that he survived but a few hours. Both his legs were run over just above the knees, his left hand cut entirely off and the right one severely crushed. It appears from the evidence given at the inquest, that he had been intoxicated in the afternoon, and when last seen, previous to the accident, he was unable to stand up. One of the witnesses stated that he had picked him up and taken him away from the track a short time before the accident, but it is supposed that he worked himself back to the tract just before the time the Branch train was due. The engineer on the Branch train states that he did not discover the man on the track until he was within a few feet of him—too close to check the train. No blame is attached to him. One of the witnesses gave in evidence that he had seen a man pour liquor into the deceased, during the afternoon, when he was already so much intoxicated that he could not stand up. We think a man who would do such an unholy act, the result of which we have chronicled above, should be indicted for manslaughter.

Good News for the Ladies.—Look here, ladies, we have some good news for you this week, something you have all been anxiously waiting to hear for the last month or more, and we "beg leave" as the storekeepers say, to assure you that it gives us no small amount of gratifications to be the honored instruments of conveying tidings fraught with so much happiness to those who by their smiles and words of approbation so often tend to encourage the heart of the printer. But, bless us, here we're running out a string of compliments it complicated phazes while you, ladies, we "dying" to hear the good news. Well, it is just this, Miss Jennie Scott, the fashionable milliner up street, has just returned from the city with her fall and winter goods, and among her stock she has several "loves" of bonnets, and "ducks" of collars, and a most "exquisite" assortment of articials, and "Oh, the nicest," ribbands, etc., etc., all of which she will dispose of on advantageous terms. There ladies, we know you thank us.

Firemen's Parade.—The members of the Fire Department of Altoona, will meet at the Armory of the Logan Rifle Rangers, on Saturday, October 20th, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of receiving their Fire Engine from Philadelphia, and forming procession to proceed over the following route:—Procession will form at Half Round House and proceed up Annie to Emma street, up Emma to Clara, over Clara to Helen street, East Altoona, down Helen to Annie, down Annie to Branch, down Branch to Allegheny, up Allegheny to Virginia, up Virginia to Caroline, down Caroline to Main, down Main to Logan House.

A trial of the Engine will be made on Virginia street, West Altoona, and on Harriet street, East Altoona. After the Engine is housed, the company will return to the Armory and be dismissed.

By order of the Committee of Arrangements
W. BOYDEN, Marshall.

Handsome Present.—It is well worth the time and trouble it will require, to call at the Reading-Room of the Altoona Mechanics' Library and Reading-Room Association, and take a look at the magnificent Chandalier presented to the Association by Geo. A. Ogelsby, gas fitter and plumber, from Philadelphia, who has opened a room in the "Brant House." To say that it is handsome is not sufficient—it is magnificently splendid. It has six burners covered with handsome globes and is hung with several rows of glass drops, which, when the burners are lighted up, assume a variety of colors, beautiful to behol'. We understand that the cost of the chandalier, had it been purchased, would have been about $40. For this handsome present, which adds so much to the appearance of the room, Mr. Ogelsby deserves, and will receive the hearty thanks of all the members of the Association.

Sudden Death.—A man named S. Reilly Rodney, of Harrisburg, acting as foreman of the bricklayers engaged in putting up the buildings at the gas works in this place, died suddenly, on Friday afternoon last, of disease of the heart. We believe he went to work perfectly well after dinner, was attacted between one and two o'clock and died at four o'clock. How true that "In the midst of life we are in death."

Mr. Rodney was well known in Harrisburg as a sober and industrious young man. He leaves a wife and child to mourn his early death.

Welcome Visitor.—We were very agreeably surprised, on Monday afternoon last, to receive a visit from our esteemed cotemporary, Col. W. W. Brown, of the Centre Democrat. The Col. is an honor to the editorial profession, prints an excellent paper and is deservedly popular among his fellow citizens, as an evidence of which we note his election to the office of County Treasurer, by a handsome majority. Long may he wave, and may it be our good fortune to meet him often.

Altoona Academy.—This institution will re-open on the 1st Monday of November. It is with much pleasure the subscriber has to announce that he has secured the services of Robt. Phipps, Esq., and his daughter, who, in addition to the usual branches taught in the Academy Collegiate course, will be able to give instructions in French and Italian.

Re-appointed.—We are pleased to learn that our friend, J. G. Adlum Esq., has been re-appointed Notary Public for this place. Joe is well qualified to discharge the duties of the office, and as an officer, is acceptable to the people.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE GREAT RESTORATIVE.

FEVER AND AGUE CURED BY DR. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS.

☞ Mr. Jonathan Houghman, of West Union, Park County, Illinois, writes to the proprietors, Fleming Bros. of Pittsburgh, that he had suffered greatly from a severe and protracted attack of Fever and Ague, and was completely restored to health by the use of the Liver Pills alone. These Pills unquestionably possess great tonic properties, and can be taken with decided advantage for many diseases requiring invigorating remedies; but the Liver Pills stand pre-eminent as a means of restoring a disorganized Liver to healthy action; hence the great celebrity they have attained. The numerous formidable diseases arising from a diseased Liver, which so long baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians of the United States, are now rendered easy of cure, thanks to the study and perseverance of the distinguished physician whose name this great medicine bears—a name which will descend to posterity as one deserving of gratitude. This invaluable medicine should always be kept within reach; and on the appearance of the earliest symptoms of diseased Liver, it can be safely and usefully administered.

☞ Purchasers will be careful to ask for Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Liver Pills, manufactured by Fleming Bros. of Pittsburgh, Pa There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of

MEDICAL IMPOSSIBILITIES.

For a long time a certain class of diseases have baffled the skill and practice of the most eminent members of the regular medical faculty. Foremost among these we might instance epilepsy or falling fits. Happily now by the skill and inventive genius of an eminent chemist of Baltimore, Md., this disease has been brought within the means of a cure. We allude to the preparation called the Vegetable Extract Epileptic Pills, invented and prepared by Dr. Seth S. Hance, of 108 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md.—Since their discovery many persons who had given up all hope of ever being cured, have been restored to the full enjoyment of health. Prominent among these we might enumerate Mr. Harrison Lightfoot, of Huntsville, Alabama. Mr. L. has suffered as much from Epilepsy, as any other person in the world; never knowing what it was to pass a week without having an attack, and often falling in the streets of Huntsville. He is now fully restored and has not had an attack for more than a year. Dr. Hance's Pills have been the sure cause of this cure. These pills also cure all modifications of Fits, Spasms, Cramps &c., and are very serviceable for persons of weak nerves. Dr. Hance, sends them to any part of the country on the receipt of a remittance. Price, one box, $3; two boxes, $5; twelve boxes $24;—Address Seth S. Hance, 108 Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md.

☞ Even those who are in the enjoyment of perfect health frequently have need to have recourse to tonics as preventives of disease. We are never too well armored against the assaults of "the ills that flesh is heir to."—Such an invigorator they may find in HOSTETTER'S BITTERS—a medicine that cannot be taken regularly without giving vitality and elasticity to the system. At this season, particularly, the strongest man is not proof against the malaria, in certain sections of the country. In all cases of fever and ague, the Bitters is more potent than any amount of quinine, while the most dangerous cases of billious fever yield to its wonderful properties. Those who have tried the medicine will never use another, for any of the ailments which the Hostetter Bitters professes to subdue. To those who have not made the experiment, we cordially recommend an early application to the Bitters, whenever they are stricken by diseases of the digestive organs.

Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

What it would take to Feed the Sun.—A philosopher has calculated that the amount of light which flows from the solar orb could be scarcely produced by the daily combustion of two hundred globes of tallow, each equal to the earth in magnitude. A sphere of combustible matter, much larger than the sun itself, would be consumed every ten years in maintaining its wonderful brilliancy. It would be a splendid sight to see an immense transparency illuminated by means of one of these tallow globes, and having written upon it, "Buy all your garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chesnut Street, above Sixth, Philadelphia."

JUST OPENED

A STOCK OF

Entirely New Goods.

R. A. O. KERR

WOULD INFORM THE GOOD people of Altoona, the surrounding country, and the "rest of mankind," that he has just returned from the city with a large stock of NEW GOODS, which he offers at reasonable prices, at the stand formerly occupied by B. Kerr, and recently by W. O'Neall, on Main street. His stock is the only one in town which is

ENTIRELY NEW,

and he flatters himself that he has something to please the eye of every lady, and suit the wants of every gentleman. He deems it unnecessary to enumerate all the articles on the shelves, (as to do so would require a whole newspaper,) but would say that he has everything in the line of which this meridian calls for, and all just suited to the season, together with a well selected assortment of House Furnishing Goods, such as Carpets, Window Blinds, Shades, &c., which will commend themselves.

LADIES' DRESS GOODS

FOR GENTLEMEN,

he has a great variety—from which they can not fail to make a satisfactory selection. He has also a tip-top assortment of GROCERIES, as good, fresh and cheap as can be had this side of the place of growing or manufacture. Also, HARDWARE, QUEENSWARE, and everything necessary to complete a store in a thriving town like Altoona.

All he asks is that the people call and examine his stock, which he will at all times take pleasure in showing, and he feels confident that he can send them away rejoicing, if not in the purchase of just such an article as they wanted, at the remembrance of having looked upon the handsomest stock of Goods ever exhibited in the town.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW WORK

BY EMERSON BENNETT,

Author of "Clara Moreland," "Prairie Flower," "The Refugees," "Blanche Bertrand," "The Artist's Bride," &c., &c., entitled

WILD SCENES ON THE FRONTIERS;

OR,

HEROES OF THE WEST.

"Westward, the course of Empire takes its way."

This Work, is the only one in Book form, which for several years has emanated from the pen of the gifted author, who treads now alone the path once trodden by our own Cooper. It will contain graphic pictures of the conflicts of the hardy Pioneer, whose strifes and struggles with his Indian foe, rival the tales of fiction and the tragic counterfeits of the mimic stage. Also thrilling narratives of the daring deeds, the heart-trials, the heroic devotion and self-denial of noble women, the mothers of the West! Beneath the over-arching forests, hand to hand, and foot to foot, the intrepid adventurer has encountered in deadly combat the ruffian desperadoes who made their haunts in the backwoods, and his gallant achievements have thrown a halo of romance over the waving prairies, the grand old mountains, and the majestic rivers of the land of the setting sun!

Nor are these pages wanting in those gentler scenes which make up home-life, and which are pictured with all the skill and fidelity for which the author is pre-eminently distinguished. His delineation of Frontier character, and of the scenery of the Borders, has always the advantage of an accuracy which is the result of an intimate, personal acquaintance.

The Work will be printed on fine white paper, in clear, open type, and appropriately and beautifully illustrated by the most skillful artists. 12mo. Cloth. Price, 1.25.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,

The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to lift me out of the suds.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

LIVER COMPLAINT,

WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND

FEVER AND AGUE,

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered

STOMACH OR LIVER,

Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strictly scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in the most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among them, I now offer it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medical virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION.—The great popularity of this delightful aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

IRON FINGER NAILS FOR HUSKING CORN.—Gould's Patent Husking Thimble is the only implement known that will entirely protect the fingers from the evils of excoriation, &c., common to husking corn by hand.

We are now in possession of over 200,000 letters of approval, over the signatures of reliable farmers and planters in different localities in the U. S., equally as flattering as the following.

READ! READ! READ!

THE HUSKING THIMBLE CAN'T be BEAT.

Messrs Gould & Co—Sirs:—I send enclosed $1 for six pairs of your celebrated Husking Thimbles. I bought a pair of you last fall and I have used them for husking ever since. If there are any who don't think worth while to buy a pair, let them tear their finger nails off, for one, I won't. They will outwear anything of the kind I ever saw, and for husking they can't be beat.

Yours truly, WM. MORROW.

BETTER THAN ANY MACHINE.

Messrs. J. H. Gould & Co.—Gents; find enclosed $1.80 for six pairs of your patent Husking Thimbles of the sizes represented by the measures enclosed. I used a pair last year and I prefer them to all the great, small, and little giant Corn Huskers. Yours Respectfully, A. H. BELL.
Hillsboro, Montgomery Co., Ill. Nov. 27th, 1858.

THE HUSKING THIMBLES ARE ALL WE REPRESENT THEM TO BE.

J. H. Gould & Co.—Alliance Ohio—Gentlemen; I received in good order the six pairs of Husking Thimbles and can say that they are all that is represented of them, I have distributed them among my neighbors, and could have sold a great many if I had had them in season. I will myself, or get some one to do so, apply for an agency for their sale in Central Iowa next season.

Yours &c., SAMUEL M. DYER.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

It is a fact that, at some period, every member of the human family is subject to disease or disturbance of the bodily functions; but, with the aid of a good tonic and the exercise of plain common sense, they may be able so to regulate the system as to secure permanent health. In order to accomplish this desired object, the true course to pursue is certainly that which will produce a natural state of things at the least hazard of vital strength and life. For this purpose, Dr. Hostetter has introduced to this country a preparation bearing his name, which is not a new medicine, but one that has been tried for years, giving satisfaction to all who have used it. The Bitters operate powerfully upon the stomach, bowels, and liver, restoring them to a healthy and vigorous action, and thus, by the simple process of strengthening nature, enable the system to triumph over disease.

For the cure of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Nausea, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, or any Bilious Complaints, arising from a morbid inaction of the Stomach or Bowels, producing Cramps, Dysentery, Colic, Cholera Morbus, &c., these Bitters have no equal.

Diarrhœa, dysentery or flux, so generally contracted by new settlers, and caused principally by the change of water and diet, will be speedily regulated by a brief use of this preparation. Dyspepsia, a disease which is probably more prevalent, in all its various forms, than any other, and the cause of which may always be attributed to derangements of the digestive organs, can be cured without fail by using HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, as per directions on the bottle. For this disease every physician will recommend Bitters of some kind; then why not use an article known to be infallible? All nations have their Bitters, as a preventive of disease and strengthener of the system in general; and among them all there is not to be found a more healthy people than the Germans, from whom this preparation emanated, based upon scientific experiments which have tended to prove the value of this great preparation in the scale of medical science.

Fever and Ague.—This trying and provoking disease, which fixes its relentless grasp on the body of man, reducing him to a mere shadow in a short time, and rendering him physically and mentally useless, can be driven from the body by the use of HOSTETTER'S RENOWNED BITTERS. Further, none of the above-stated diseases can be contracted, even in exposed situations, if the Bitters are used as per directions. And as they neither create nausea nor offend the palate, and render unnecessary any change of diet or interruption of ordinary pursuits, but promote sound sleep and healthy digestion, the complaint is removed as speedily as is consistent with the production of a thorough and permanent cure.

For Persons in Advanced Years, who are suffering from an enfeebled constitution and infirm body, these Bitters are invaluable as a restorative of strength and vigor, and need only be tried to be appreciated. And to a mother while nursing these Bitters are indispensable, especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic, such as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is needed to impart temporary strength and vigor to the system. Ladies should by all means try this remedy for all cases of debility, and, before so doing, should ask their physician, who, if he is acquainted with the virtue of the Bitters, will recommend their use in all cases of weakness.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.

☞ Prepared and sold by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa., and sold by all druggists, grocers, and dealers generally throughout the United States, Canada, South America, and Germany.

☞ Sold by G W Kessler and A Roush, Altoona; G A Jacobs, J K Patton and W G Murray, Hollidaysburg; and S Berlin, Tyrone. [Aug. 25, 1859-1y

DR. COGGSWELL'S NEW MEDICAL SALT.

Read the following Certificates to the Efficacy of this Medicine in Inflammatory Diseases.

"For the last twelve years I have been more or less troubled with Inflammatory Rheumatism, commencing early in the Spring, and lasting until cold weather set in, when I would be relieved for a while, only to be attacked again in the Spring. All my joints would swell and be very sore, attended with the most acute pain. My feet, shoulders, arms, and hands troubled me most, so much so that I could scarcely walk, and almost always required assistance in dressing. During this time I would try everything I could hear of, in the hope of finding a cure. I also tried several physicians, but nothing seemed to help me the least in the world. About two and a half years ago I was attacked as usual, and as usual tried everything to get rid of it, but to no purpose. I kept growing worse, and finally had to give up and stay in the house, where I was confined about four weeks. This time my feet swelled, and were so sore that I could not stand on them or get on my boots, and my hands swelled to twice their usual size. In fact, I was, to all appearances and belief, totally used up. About this time my parents, who reside in Maine, sent for me to come home. I went and after my arrival I commenced trying another remedy, hoping to be cured, but resulting the same as all others. For weeks I had not been able to dress myself or to raise my hand to my head, and suffering the most excruciating pain all the time.—One day my father came in with a paper in which was advertised Dr. Coggswell's MEDICAL SALT, for Inflammatory Diseases only, and wanted me to read and see what I thought of it. I read and laughed at it, pronounced it a humbug, and told him that I had been humbugged enough. He kept urging me, and at last said I could but try it, and if I would write to Dr. C., giving him a description of my disease, he would pay the expense. Of course I could not refuse such an offer and sent for one box. It came in due season, but my faith was not increased, and I laughed at the idea of so small a dose doing me any good, and told my wife that I believed Dr. C. and his Salt both humbugs.—However, I commenced using it and the result was perfectly astonishing. I could hardly realize it myself. I slept soundly all night, which I had not done for a long time, and when I awoke in the morning, strange as it may seem, I was entirely free from pain. I had then taken but one dose, and bathed freely before going to bed. That morning I felt so well that I hardly knew how to contain myself, and went down stairs and told the folks how well I felt, and from that day to this I have not suffered one moment's pain or had an attack of my once dreaded enemy, Rheumatism. I am perfectly well and hearty, and wherever I have a chance I recommend it. A friend of mine, residing in Brooklyn, is now trying it for a bad case of neuralgic rheumatism, and so far it is working admirably.—This is a long story, but I have told all the facts, which I can bring witnesses to substantiate if necessary; and will again say that in the MEDICAL SALT, a sure cure may be found for all inflammatory diseases, and would urge all who are afflicted to give it a trial. GEO. H. DUNCAN,
No. 117 Wall Street, New York.

When it is remembered that the MEDICAL SALT is as efficacious in all other Inflammatory diseases as in Rheumatism, (see descriptive circulars) it will at once be seen that it is a most valuable remedy. Surely those thus afflicted will find in their own condition and in the above statements, enough to induce them to give the MEDICAL SALT a trial.

Price $1,00; Chronic package, $2,50.

TO all wanting Farms. See advertisement of Hammonton Lands.

NEW AGRICULTURAL SETTLEMENT.—To all wanting Farms, a rare opportunity in a delightful and healthy climate 25 miles Southeast of Philadelphia, on the Camden and Atlantic Railroad New Jersey.

An old estate consisting of several thousands of acres of productive soil has been divided into Farms of various sizes to suit the purchaser. A population of some Fifteen Hundred, from various parts of the Middle States and New England have settled there the past year, improved their places, and raised excellent crops. The price of the land is at the low sum of from $15 to $20 per acre, the soil is of the best quality for the production of Wheat, Clover, Corn, Peaches, Grapes and Vegetables. IT IS CONSIDERED THE BEST FRUIT SOIL IN THE UNION. The place is perfectly secure from frosts—the destructive enemy of the farmer. Crops of grain, grass and fruit are now growing and can be seen. By examining the place itself, a correct judgment can be formed of the productiveness of the land. The terms are made easy to secure the rapid improvement of the land, which is only sold for actual improvement. The result has been, that within the past year, some three hundred houses have been erected, two mills, one steam, four stores, some forty vinyards and Peach orchards, planted, and a large number of other improvements, making it a desirable and active place of business.

THE MARKET,

as the reader may perceive from its location, is the BEST IN THE UNION.

Produce bringing double the price than in locations away from the city, and more than double the price than the West. It is known that the earliest and best fruits and vegetables in this latitude come from New Jersey, and are annually exported to the extent of millions.

In locating here, the settler has many advantages. He is within a few hours ride of the great cities of New England and Middle States, he is near his old friends and associations, he is in a settled country where every improvement of comfort and civilization is at hand. He can buy every article he wants at the cheapest price, and sell his produce for the highest, (in the West this is reversed,) he has schools for his children, divine service, and will enjoy an open winter, and delightful climate, where fevers are utterly unknown. The result of the change upon those from the north, has generally been to restore them to an excellent state of health.

In the way of building and improving, lumber can be obtained at the mills at the rate of $10 to $15 per thousand. Bricks from the brick yard opened in the place, every article can be procured in the place, good carpenters are at hand, and there is no place in the Union where buildings and improvements can be made cheaper.

The reader will at once be struck with the advantages there presented, and ask himself why the property has not been taken up before. The reason is, it was never thrown in the market; and unless these statements were correct, no one would be invited to examine the land before purchasing. This all are expected to do. They will see land under cultivation, such is the extent of the settlement that they will no doubt, meet persons, from their own neighborhood; they will witness the improvements and can judge the character of the population. If they come with a view to settle, they should come prepared to stay a day or two and be ready to purchase, as locations cannot be held on refusal.

There are two daily trains to Philadelphia, and to all settlers who improve, the Railroad Company gives a Free Ticket for six months, and a half-price Ticket for three years.

THE TOWN OF HAMMONTON.

In connection with the agricultural settlement, a new and thriving town has naturally arisen, which presents inducements for any kind of business, particularly stores and manufactories. The Shoe business could be carried on in this place and market to good advantage, also cotton business, and manufactories of agricultural implements or Founderies for casting small articles. The improvement has been so rapid as to insure a constant and permanent increase of business. Town lots of a good size, we do not sell small ones, as it would effect the improvement of the place, can be had at from $100 and upwards.

The Hammonton Farmer, a monthly literary and agricultural sheet, containing full information of Hammonton, can be obtained at 25 cents per annum.

Title indisputable—warrantee deeds given, clear of all incumbrance when money is paid. Route to the land; leave Vine street wharf, Philadelphia for Hammonton by Railroad, at 7½ A. M., or 4½ P. M. Fare 90 cents. When there inquire for Mr. Byrnes. Boarding conveniences on hand. Parties had better stop with Mr. Byrnes, a principal, until they have decided as to purchasing, as he will show them over the land in his carriage, free of expense. Letters and applications can be addressed to Landis & Byrnes, Hammonton P. O., Atlantic Co., New Jersey, or S. B. Coughlin, 202 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia.—Maps and information cheerfully furnished.

THE SECRET INFIRMITIES OF YOUTH AND MATURITY just published Gratis the 25th Thousand.

A few words on the Rational Treatment, without Medicine of Spermatorrhœa or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Premature Decay of the System, Impotency and Impediments to marriage generally, by B. De Laney, M.D.

The important fact that many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth may be easily removed without medicine, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure himself perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, 38 East 31st Street, New York City.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION, PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual Diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a charitable act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give medical advice gratis, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty and suffering, to furnish medicine free of charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The directors of the Association, in their Annual Report upon the treatment of Sexual Diseases, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the Consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or Self-abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important and much despised cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation, or Self-abuse, and other abuses of the sexual organs, by the Consulting Surgeon, will be sent by mail (in a sealed envelope), FREE OF CHARGE, on receipt of TWO STAMPS for postage. Other Reports and Tracts on the nature and treatment of sexual diseases, &c., are constantly being published for gratuitous distribution, and will be sent to the afflicted. Some of the new remedies and methods of treatment discovered during the last year, are of great value.

Address, for Report or Treatment, Dr. GEORGE R. CALHOUN, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 S. Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public a NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell of gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed ere it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER.
Sole Agent for Blair County.

CELEBRATED
AND LIVER PILLS.

WE beg leave to call the attention of the Trade, and more especially the Physicians of the country, to two of the most popular remedies now before the public. We refer to

Dr. Chas. M'Lane's Celebrated

Vermifuge and Liver Pills.

We do not recommend them as universal Cure-alls, but simply for what their name purports, viz.:

THE VERMIFUGE,

For expelling Worms from the human system. It has also been administered with the most satisfactory results to various Animals subject to Worms.

THE LIVER PILLS,

For the cure of LIVER COMPLAINTS, all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS, SICK HEAD-ACHE, &c. In cases of preparatory to or after taking Quinine, they almost invariably make a speedy and permanent cure.

FEVER AND AGUE,

As specifics for the above mentioned diseases, they are Unrivaled, and never known to fail when administered in accordance with the directions.

Their unprecedented popularity has induced the proprietors,

FLEMING BROTHERS,

PITTSBURGH, PA.

to dispose of their Drug business, in which they have been successfully engaged for the last Twenty Years, and they will now give their undivided time and attention to their manufacture. And being determined that Dr. M'Lane's Celebrated Vermifuge and Liver Pills shall continue to occupy the high position they now hold among the great remedies of the day, they will continue to spare neither time nor expense in procuring the Best and Purest material, and compound them in the most thorough manner. Address all orders to

FLEMING BROS. Pittsburgh, Pa.

P. S. Dealers and Physicians ordering from others than Flemming Bros., will do well to write their orders distinctly and take none but Dr. M'Lanes, prepared by Flemming Bros, Pittsburgh, Pa. To those wishing to give them a trial, we will forward by mail, post paid, to any part of the United States, one box of Pills for twelve three-cent postage stamps, or one vial of Vermifuge for fourteen three cent stamps. All orders from Canada must be accompanied by twenty cents extra.

☞ For sale, in Altoona, by A. Roush and G. W. Kessler, and by all Druggists. [may 19, '59-1y
